Finland

Implementation of proposal to introduce heightened requirements for employers and third-country nationals postponed

Executive summary

The Finnish government's proposal to introduce heightened requirements for employers and third-country nationals did not take effect on 1 April 2025. The new estimated implementation date is now set for 1 September 2025.

Key developments

If the proposal is approved in its current form, it will introduce changes regarding the employment of third-country nationals. These include the cancellation of residence permits for work purposes held by individuals whose employment ends prematurely and who do not secure a new job within three months. Certain categories of third-country nationals will be granted a six-month job search period. Additionally, employers will be required to notify the Finnish Immigration Service within 14 days of the end of the employment and within seven days of hiring a third-country national.

Impact on employers

Employers may remain abreast of this and future developments, and update their internal processes, to ensure compliance with local requirements and mitigate potential business disruptions.

Key steps

EY will continue to monitor these developments. Should you have any questions, we encourage you to contact one of our immigration professionals.
