Argentina

New visa exemption for nationals of the Chinese mainland

Executive summary

Certain nationals of the Chinese mainland may now enter Argentina for business purposes without an Argentine visa.

Key developments

Effective 21 July 2025, nationals of the Chinese mainland who hold ordinary passports may enter Argentina without a visa for up to 30 days per entry for business (or tourism) purposes, provided they hold a valid business visitor (or tourist) visa issued by the United States. These individuals may request an extension of their authorized stay once for the same duration, subject to the discretion of the National Directorate of Migration. They are not permitted to change their immigration status while in Argentina.

Impact on employers

The new policy is expected to benefit employers that send nationals of the Chinese mainland to Argentina for business purposes by reducing the time and expenses associated with admission.
