Argentina

Visa exemption extended for certain business visitors who hold a US Permanent Resident Card

Executive summary

Effective 14 January 2026, nationals of the Chinese mainland, the Dominican Republic and India who hold a US Permanent Resident Card (Green Card) may enter Argentina as business visitors or tourists.

Key developments

This policy applies to nationals of the Chinese mainland, the Dominican Republic and India who hold a Permanent Resident Card issued by the United States, who may now remain in Argentina for up to 30 days under the "Businessperson" or "Tourist" categories without an Argentine visa. Those who seek to remain for longer periods are required to obtain the appropriate visa prior to entry.

This is in addition to the benefit that nationals of the Chinese mainland already hold whereby they may enter Argentina on a valid US business visitor (or tourist) visa and remain for up to 30 days as either business visitors or tourists. Nationals of the Dominican Republic and India may enter Argentina on a valid US business visitor (or tourist) visa for up to 30 days per entry, but only as tourists.

The new measure aims to simplify immigration procedures and promote commercial ties and tourism while maintaining high security standards.

Impact on employers

This policy is expected to benefit employers by minimizing business disruptions in connection with visa processing.

Key steps

EY will continue to monitor these developments. Should you have any questions, we encourage you to contact one of our immigration professionals.
