Vietnam

Pre-entry declaration requirement at Tan Son Nhat International Airport

Executive summary

Effective 15 April 2026, foreign nationals and holders of overseas Vietnamese visas are required to complete a personal information declaration, which may be completed prior to arrival or on arrival, and present it at Tan Son Nhat International Airport in Vietnam prior to entry.

Key developments

After completing the pre-entry personal information declaration, travelers will receive a personal QR code which must be presented to the immigration officers at Tan Son Nhat International Airport during entry procedures. The declaration may be completed online prior to travel or on arrival by scanning an official QR code displayed at the airport, which provides access to the declaration platform. In all cases, the personal QR code is generated only after the declaration has been successfully submitted.

Impact on employers

The implementation of this pre-entry declaration is intended to enhance the efficiency of immigration control procedures while facilitating a faster and more convenient entry process for passengers entering Vietnam. Employers may update their internal processes and inform impacted employees about this change.

Key steps

EY will continue to monitor these developments. Should you have any questions, we encourage you to contact one of our immigration professionals.
